“The 10-Minute Press Conference”

Students will:
Research the event in regard = and become the "expert" on that topic.

Oral Presentations:
Student gives a 5-minute statement followed by 5 minutes of questions and Answers.
Students acting as journalists will take notes and ask questions.
Write newspaper headlines based on press conferences.

You will be asked to select a historic figure that you will portray at a future press conference to be held at ____________High School.
Your classmates will act as the reporters and journalists who will be asking questions after you have completed your prepared statement. Since you will not know what questions will be asked of you, you must be well studied in the background and life of the individual you are playing.

You will present your information in a statement to the press. One page double spaced press statement.
You will be allowed to have five (5) 3X5 cards with you for the Presentation.
Speaking from the podium, you will become that person and present key ideas, reactions and even emotions when questioned by the "press."
You should plan to dress and speak in the appropriate manner of your individual.
After your presentation the "press" will ask you questions.
